

Happy Hardcore, Tears Run Cold

Tears run cold
and I still hold on to the feeling you'll come back me
Deep within my soul
But don't take too long
'Coz I can't wait too long
Too many sleepless nights
Waiting for you to come back home
My tears run cold

As soon as the sun reaches the sky after tonight I will be gone
I'll wait for the train for you to take me to the place where you belong
You never know what you had until it disappears from your control
So hurry to be with me for you'll no longer see my Tears run cold

As soon as the sun reaches the sky after tonight I will be gone
I'll wait for the train for you to take me to the place where you belong
You never know what you had until it disappears from your control
So hurry to be with me for you'll no longer see my
Tears Run Cold
