

Harbourlight, Redeeming Love

As mountains fall down You're standing
Holding out Your hands to save me
The hands that bled on Calvary
The blood that set me free
But how I have run, I have run away
You overtake me with Your mercy
My tears of shame fall to the sea
Of unfailing love for me
And I sing of redeeming love
I sing of redeeming love

It is the love that saved my life
It is the hope that gives me strength to carry on You're the one who hold me
You're the one who loves me

Now I'm carried on the shoulders
Of Your grace that's strong to hold me
It carries me through valleys
Leads me into Your keep
Such great love to rescue me
By this love I've been redeemed

I will sing of your Love
Sing of your love
Sing of the blood that rescued me
This is redeeming love
