BIG SAND (Hardkandy, Ministry of Sound, Chillout Session 7)

Open up and open wide,
can't you feel the warmth inside?
maybe you should dive on in,
this is where it all begins.

Change of picture and of view
ain't no-one there that's stoping you, or maybe you could paint the scene,
I think you know exactly what I mean.

Taste the faces I have been,
there ain't nobody knows the feeling, yeah, Heads never broken just replaced when everybody knows I am healing.

Now and then I fade away
this is where I've come to stay, wasted space inside a dream tell me when it's safe to crawl on in.

Anyone of you wanna see your face?
you'll see it and then praise, hey hey,
anyone of you wanna see your face?
you're gonna see it and then some will praise,
somehow, somehow, somehow..

Trace the places I have seen
I am almost there I'm standing in between yeah,
change of picture and of view
ain't noone there that's stopping you.

Now and then I fade away
this is where I've come to stay, there's something there that calls my name time and again, and again, and again, and again yeah.

Anyone of you wanna see your face?
you'll see it and then praise, hey hey,
anyone of you wanna see your face?
you're gonna see it and then some will praise,
somehow.
