

Hard Rain, Different Kind Of Love

You never thought she could get to you
Oh no, hypnotised by a touch so tenderly and skin so white
She never tried to hurt or fool you
Oh no, never lied and everything you wanna be is in her eyes

Now the passion burns in you tonight
And the world could tumble down around your feet
When you're in somebody's arms who's going to treat you right
And you know that you don't ever want to leave, never, never

She started it up, you're into the fire
With a different kind of love
She opened the book, took you even higher
With a different kind of love
Now everyone looks, they don't understand
That feeling inside, it's going to get to you

It was an ordinary question, no clues or candlelight
A dozen roses at your door, no second sight
Now it's a love of sweet perfection, you choose and pay the price
You don't wonder any more, you know it's right

Now the passion burns in you tonight
And the world could tumble down around your feet
When you're in somebody's arms who's going to treat you right
And you know that you don't ever want to leave, never, never

She started it up, you're into the fire
With a different kind of love
She opened the book, took you even higher
With a different kind of love
Now everyone looks, they don't understand
That feeling inside, it's going to get to you

You can taste it, you need her, oh so bad
You're about to lose your mind
And you can't take it, you don't have to feel so sad
You're only losing time

Now the passion burns in you tonight
And the world could tumble down around your feet
When you're in somebody's arms who's going to treat you right
And you know that you don't ever want to leave, never, never

She started it up, you're into the fire
With a different kind of love
She opened the book, took you even higher
With a different kind of love
Now everyone looks, they don't understand
That feeling inside, it's going to get to you
