

Hard Rain, Stop Me From Lovin' You

Oh, baby
Ain't no pleasure, ain't no pain
I won't ever be the same
Took your love and run
I'm the loser from now on

It's crazy
I've got trouble on my mind
Didn't mean to be unkind
Can't believe you're gone
I've been crying all night long

Open up and let me in
I don't know where to begin
Open up and let me in

You'd better stop me from loving you
Stop me from loving you
'Cause deep in the night
Into the storm
Who's holding you tight
Keeping you warm
Stop me from loving you
Tell me I'm through

Oh, baby
Ain't no pleasure, ain't no pain
I won't ever be the same
Took your love and run
I'm the loser from now on

Open up and let me in
I don't know where to begin
Open up and let me in

You'd better stop me from loving you
Stop me from loving you
'Cause deep in the night
Into the storm
Who's holding you tight
Keeping you warm
Stop me from loving you
Tell me I'm through

I can walk the line
You can see my face
What can I do?
In another time
In another place
I get to you

You'd better stop me from loving you
Stop me from loving you
'Cause deep in the night
Into the storm
Who's holding you tight
Keeping you warm
Stop me from loving you
Tell me I'm through
