

Hardcore Superstar, Don't You Ever Leave Me (H

The nights are wearing me down
And it's hard getting through the day
'Cos I need you right now
And right now you're so faraway

I guess I should have known
That I'd end up this way
But I swear I'll come home
And then nothing will drag me away

Don't you ever leave me baby
Don't you ever leave me now
Don't you ever leave me baby
If you leave me you will kill me now

The lights are slowly going down
On Lexington Avenue
And me, I'm all alone feeling the tears falling down from my eyes

A subway train is passing by Driving into the Darkness
I jump inside 'cos I ain't got nowhere to sleep tonight

Don't you ever leave me baby
Don't you ever leave me now
Don't you ever leave me baby
If you leave me you will kill me now
