Harem Scarem, New Religion

Apologize for stupid old mistakes Your only vice disappears without a trace

Your mystified You can't relate Your on your knees to follow the new faith

I'm starting my own religion Demi Gods They'll be none After all demons fall we'll be done

Sink your teeth into the golden prey You won't believe the souls we saved today

You won the prize It's no debate Your on your knees to follow the new faith
