

Harlan Howard, Hello There Stranger

Hello there stranger you look kind of sad today
And I'll bet stranger that things haven't gone your way
I'm sorry stranger I once felt as bad as you
Remember stranger when you broke my heart in two
I loved you stranger I loved you so much back then
Much more stranger than you'll ever be loved again
Well bye bye stranger I hope you don't cry too long
No longer stranger than from ever sundown till dawn
[steel]
I loved you stranger...
