

Harlan Howard, I'd Rather Be A Fool

I'd rather be a fool and have people laugh at me than be like I am wise and lonely
Though you never played fair and at times you were cruel
I'm gettin' mighty lonely I'd rather be a fool
I don't care what they say cause I'm all right
As long as your arms just hold me tight
Everybody says I'm wise I was so smart to leave you
But I'm gettin' mighty lonely I'd rather be a fool
Yes I'm gettin' mighty lonely I'd rather be a fool
