

Harvey Danger, Cool James

Cannot have this, a perfect conversation (perfect conversation)
Or coast on silence and lowered expectations out the door
You've spent half your life talking
Trying to get a pause in edgewise
Swallow poison tongues, oppose your thumbs
Believe in nothing

Cannot have a nature change
One more time
You cannot have a nature change
Cuz the bastard changes

Cannot have this, you see how so much time has wasted
To take a clenched fist and see how quiet calm replaced it
You say you'll never trust again
I'll never trust again
Who has time?
You've given up
On ever finding the one you've been waiting for, but

Cannot have a nature change
One more time
You cannot have a nature change
Cuz the bastard changes

Well, I got no more time to spend on arguers
Devil's advocates and nasty bits of fits of desperation
"Lawrence of Arabia," Sir Alec said to Peter,
"What I owe you is beyond evaluation now"

Extend to me your hand
I'll nibble on your fingers
Bend to me your sweet ear
I'll gnaw it from its hinges now

Cannot have a nature change
One last time
Yeah, that's why ladies love cool James
Cuz the bastard changes
