

Hatebreed, Bloody Kisses

Not long ago but far away

□A rainy winter's day

□All her pain she kept inside

□Could no longer hide

□No cry for help

□She killed herself

□Both life & love could not be saved

□She took them both to the grave

□A pair of souls become undone

□Where were two now one

□Divided by this wall of death

□I soon will join you yet

□With my blood I'll find your love

□You found the strength to end your life

□As you did so shall I

□Oh no

□Please don't go

□It's like a death in the family

□A crimson pool so warm & deep

□Lulls me to an endless sleep

□Your hand in mine - I will be brave

□Take me from this earth

□An endless night - this, the end of life

□From the dark I feel your lips

□And I taste your bloody kiss

□Oh no

□Please don't go

□It's like a death in the family

□Don't die on me

□Don't die on me

□Don't die on me

□Don't die
