

Hatebreed, Supremacy Of Self

SOME WARS MUST BE FOUGHT ALONE

Am I the only one standing in my way?

Am I my own merciless enemy?

Can I stare back looking deep into death's gaze

Can I turn and face myself and the knowledge of would shouldn't be?

To look into my heart was to look into hell

Controlled by the voice of fear I was completely overwhelmed

So concerned with the things I could never change

Now I must assure to never fulfill that prophecy

I must attain

Supremacy, of mind

Supremacy, of body

Supremacy, of spirit

Supremacy, of self

The war you want is the war I'm willing to give

Farewell to all the disbelief suspend in the depths

To look into my heart was to look into hell

Controlled by the voice of fear I was completely overwhelmed

So concerned with the things I could never change

Now I must assure to never fulfill that prophecy

I must attain

Supremacy, of mind

Supremacy, of body

Supremacy, of spirit

Supremacy, of self
