

Hatesphere, Blankeyed

[Lead: P. Lyse Hansen]

Give me back my anger
Cause Ive been trying to live without
Failing miserably very step on the way
Its my crutch and its my sword
That makes me hard so hard!
I need this mask to wear
I need this blankeyed stare
I need this thorn in my side
I need someone to hate, to make it all right
And I find that Im alive
Everything in this world must die!
This rage boils inside of me
I know Im in control
Im no longer feeling lost
I can make my own truth
No longer scared of the thing I cant comprehend
I crush it all under one foot
And I find that Im alive
Everything in this world must die!
This rage boils inside of me
I know Im in control
Nothing can stand against me
No room in my world for opposition
And I turn my gaze on you
This blankeyed stare
