

Haujobb, Penetration

For a little piece of a second
I have seen men
Blinking and sparkling
Test-screen coloured
Wiped out afterwards
Still there
Thinking they were... universe

They swallow the worlds
They swallow the worlds around me

Located everywhere
Decentralised
Cut into pieces
And set up again
They burst to dust
They turn to liquid
Spread themselves like sunlight
Thinking they were universe

They swallow the worlds
They swallow the worlds around me

(Repeat Chorus)
