

Haven, Holding On

Lost your faith drowning, drowning starry eyes want keep flaming I'd rather be still dreaming
I can't watch you drown there's no trance of grieving, grieving starry eyes won't stop the waiting I'd rather be, still dreaming
I can't watch you drown
she says those words so dear for a little taste of it all all my words shed to tears all my life
all my
lost your faith drowning, drowning
starry eyes want keep flaming
I'd rather be, still dreaming
I can't watch you drown
all your words shed to tears all my life, life, life all my life, life
all my life
