

Haven, I Need Someone

Your is the weakness she is on the floor standing where laughing words you ignore
you need someone to help you settle down cos your starting to fade
with a look at these arms
how they stand the pain
stands the pain
there ain't no sweetness there ain't no joy
you can't keep a secret and how many more
cos there ain't no sweetness that words can't convey the soul just stop feelings you can't explain
helps to keep it secret from them all keeps them all at bay need someone to help you settle down
stands the pain (3x)
