

Haven, Lately

Something's still seems hostile here still won't make me proud feels so right, yet wrong again covered by these shrouds cos nobody lately, looks like you do and nobody lately, sounds like you do as I'm moving around again there's no sight or sound I make mistakes everywhere and who knows where there bound
and as I'm moving up again I can see it with my eyes there's a sun cloud that's moving down I've seen my face back in the crowd, and I know can't feel myself no more, oh oh
and nobody lately, sounds like you nobody lately, looks like you do nobody lately, feels like you looks like you sounds like you touches like you
