

Haven, Still Tonight

Of all the times we'd spend none have been so perfect well last day parting breath just want some for the ending there's still tonight, tonight, tonight
there's still tonight, tonight, tonight no reason to be sad only serves to break me the timeless tale won't end just grows with inner memory
and has it changed, some how and has it changed, just now there's still tonight, tonight, tonight
and the words you throw at me, don't make no sense and your eyes are telling me, something else tonight, tonight, tonight there's still, there's still, there's still, there's still,
tonight, tonight, tonight
there's still tonight, tonight, tonight (4x)
