

Hawthorne Heights, The Girl That Destroyed Me

Feels like, falling down
I turned around, your not there
Why was everything so alone
Why was i so never again

Take to the trashbags and close my eyes
I said I make it without you
I still I try to hold my flesh
Just like you were holding my hair
But you were just holding my heart
Yeah you were just holding my heart

Pretty nights alone would feel alright
Three nights would feel alright
Three nights alone would feel..
