

Hayley Kiyoko, I Wish

i wish /3x
i found love
I wish /3x
I found love

i don't know where we're gonna go from here I don't you shut down when I tell you all the shit I want we butt heads, you don't pay my no attention and you're selfish with your affection you don't like when I decide to speak my mind no you don't like that I do what I want like all the time we butt heads, you don't pay my no attention

i found love
I wish /3x
I found love

cause I wake up, up in the morning time and there's nobody here by my side
I wish /3x
I found love

you don't care it's a storm In my iris cuz you lied you don't mind that it's raining oceans from my eyes we butt heads, you don't pay my no attention

your black heart you aun;t even budge when you tore mine apart you wyle out so I wyle out too mather wassup?
we butt heads, you don't pay my no attention

i found love
I wish /3x
I found love

cause I wake up, up in the morning time
and there's nobody here by my side
I found love
