Hayley Westenra, Dark Waltz

We are the lucky ones We shine like a thousand suns When all of the colour runs together

I'll keep you company In one glorious harmony Waltzing with destiny forever

Dance me into the night Underneath the moon shining so bright Turning me into the light

Time dancers whirling past I gaze through the looking glass And feel just beyond my grasp is heaven

Sacred geometry Where movement is poetry Visions of you and me forever

Dance me into the night Underneath the moon shining so bright Turning me into the light

Dance me into the night Underneath the moon shining so bright Let the dark waltz begin

Oh let me wheel - let me spin Let it take me again Turning me into the light
