

HBS (Ben Shepherd), Collide

So I let you dream, the last few miles,
And didn't turn the lights on inside
I let you slide away for the last time
It was all a long goodbye

Collide

Trying to beg my way through what I get from you
Just trying not to show you how low I go
There's no way to save you from the long goodbyes
In the back of my smile

Collide

This is to you, and your love of Panda and how you let me go my way
Our time together and how it fades
We collide like waves

Collide
