

He Is Legend, I Am Hollywood

Heather's gone
She left a note
"He Is Legend" was all she wrote
Go fetch the detective
I think I've found something
This isn't Heather's handwriting

That's right, I said it
I said it [repeat]

Don't you talk to strangers?
You know it leads to danger
"I'm gonna be a big star some day";

Shake that thing

The kidnapper is at the Comfort Inn
We'll find your daughter and we'll get revenge
Record me / red carpet [repeat]
Red carpet burns

The ransom, the handsome one knocks on your door
It's the candy, the paper, the blood on the floor
It's the "diamonds and pills";
Leave my daughter alone!
It's the glamour that kills
"Dad, I'm not coming home";

I am Hollywood
Watch where you point your finger
I am Hollywood
You better remember

Yeah!

I am Hollywood [repeat]
