

Headhunter, Parasite Of Society

Hey you look in the mirror! See your life any clearer?
What the hell do you see?
The ugly face of truth made you waste your youth
Your life goes down the drain
Success -- based on vengeance and fear
Dark -- will be your future dear
Parasite of society, a victim of anxiety
Parasite of society, life without variety
Hey you cheater and liar, you have set your future on fire!
Based your carrier on deceipts
Lies don't travel far the unvarnished truth -- you star
Hits harder than Muhammad Ali
Success -- based on vengeance and fear
Dark -- will be your future dear
Parasite of society, a victim of anxiety
Parasite of society, life without variety
Think twice before you take the wrong turn
Take a stand: decline or learn
Parasite of society, a victim of anxiety
Parasite of society, life without variety
