

Headstone Epitaph, Whisper

[Tim: inspired by a psychEdelic moment where]

[i tried to create a ballad that wasn't to classic.]

[Lovers afflicted with doubts.]

[vers:]

will I follow words I've ever known will I leave you here leave you now alone my dear will I always know

[ref:]

whisper my aim and let me know the same let me know what I don't know and what I always claim

[vers:]

remember what I've told to you that I am susceptible to what you say is my command

my will and my life is in your hand will I always know
