

Headstones, Blonde And Blue

She makes me crazy
Doesn't have a vicious bone in her body
Well it ain't tasteful
She says she hates me
And later on, she says she's sorry

Thinking of these things
Hold it down
Holding him down and pulling off his wings

Blonde and Blue
Troubled and misused
Living without you
My heart is yours
Nothing lasts forever
We'll always be together
Nothing lasts forever
My heart is yours

It's armor plated
You hooked up your heart and amplified it
Now if you're hated
You do so much to override it
