

Headstrong, Swing Harder

Lashing out
at frustration

chorus :swing harder/ is that the best you can do i'm still standing here on my feet, God won't you just/ knock me to my knees, please.

Don't you hesitate now, break me down just to build me back again

Temper temper always remember your temper temper

you could've been so much more to me chorus

i hope you feel better, i don't , i will not not recover from this bliss this dull joy un-victory you must always remember i made this for you wave by at you with my broken hands goodbye dad time to make amends to me but you don't see me i know you have no idea
