

Heart, I Give Up

I know you got a secret that you really don't want to show
You hid something somebody did to you and you guard it like a lie
And I know what I'm talking about
Cause I've seen it leaking out
But I'm with you baby now, and I'm not sneaking out
Cause I know and I feel you're not showing me
How can I change what you won't let me see

(chorus)

I give up I give in
You win this time
Knowing you means let you go
I give up I give in
You win this time
But don't belong
Baby don't belong I love you I love you

I know evesdroppers might find out more than they might wanna know
Yeah I know but I feel you're loving me
How can I change what you won't let me see

(chorus)
