

Heartsdales, Rum Interlude/Classical Barbie

I shed my tears
Try to hide my fears
I've fallin' down through all these years
Didn't I know how much you were there for me
Had no clue somebody was watching me
My life, just going down the stairs
Couldn't control myself, couldn't be nice to you
But my rainy days are over...
My lonely nightmares are over...
God, if you hear me won't you please?
Mom, will you always love me please?
To my friends and family
You make me feel like the one and only Classical Barbie
