

Heather Nova, One Day In June

Thanks to Bajo Philip for submitting the lyrics

One day in June
I slipped away
Caught by desire
Drawn to the flame

My virtues disappeared
Light on my feet
Whispers as sweet as honey
Callin' to me

One day in June
One day in June
I felt the hunger
I ate the fruit
One day in June

So don't cry for me
I had my chance
I took a risk
I asked the wind to dance

Don't try to save me
I'm already gone
Everything's over
But I'm burning on

And I don't like how it feels
To tell all these little lies
Tryin' to be the one you can count on
But all it's a thin disguise
I kissed it all goodbye
One day in June

One day in June
One day in June
I felt the hunger
I ate the fruit
One day in June
