

Heaven Ablaze, Denying Salvation

Through the infinity
Of our souls
We have many answers
Which we do not know
Through the infinity
Of this life
We must face the angst
Of such strife

Denying salvation
And the chains of despair
Denying salvation
And the shackles of time

Denying salvation
And the chains of despair
Denying salvation
And the shackles of time

Desperate times call
For desperate measures
And in the heat of the moment
We collapse under pressure
Facing the temptations
Of such pleasures
And in destroying your flesh
You will meet thy maker

Denying salvation
And the chains of despair
Denying salvation
And the shackles of time

Denying salvation
And the chains of despair
Denying salvation
And the shackles of time

I stand alone
I believe in no gods
I defeat the trials
Against all odds
Standing before angels
I cast them down
As the gates of heaven
Fall to the ground

-Solo-

Through the infinity

We have many answers
Which we do not know
Through the infinity
Of this life
We must face the angst
Of such strife

Denying salvation
And the chains of despair
Denying salvation
And the shackles of time

Denying salvation

And the chains of despair
Denying salvation
And the shackles of time

I stand alone
I believe in no gods
I defeat the trials
Against all odds
Standing before angels
I cast them down
Fall to the ground
