

Heaven's Gate, Shadows

[Rettke]

As you were down again, you told me all those lies and you know I've to pray you're life is still a game, I waited for the price and I know I've to pay

You've been a runaway, feeling as cold as ice asked me if you could stay, I felt like been hypnotized heaven will know, know the reason why you never showed that sorrow in your eyes

You told me those lies that you'd make a turn but I could see in your eyes that you never would learn

[CHORUS:]

IN THE SHADOW, shadow of your life IN THE SHADOW, you could not deny when you're drunk you were lost, and you're having no way something is even to say IN THE SHADOW of your life

Now that you've gone away I look at the morning sun all night long I move and stray thinking of things we've done heaven will know, know the reason why you had to go on broken wings up the sky
