

Heinz Winckler, Chasing Shadows

Dreams pass much hours in the night
I've tried so many ways to make it all seem right
Timeless journeys always searching just beyond
But who I am depends on what I've done

You looked at me as if to say
"No time for turning back, I know you'll find your way";
Still prevailing as I'm sailing through the sky
Every beat, your heart will be my guide

Chasing shadows going nowhere
Different worlds that lead to one
I dunno what happened down there
But I was given love

Chasing shadows endless journey
Looking for the chance to shine
You showed me the right of passage
Comes from down inside
Deep inside

Nothing gained unless you try (You gotta spread your wings & fly)
I'll never see the light if I just run & hide
A new beginnings always running down the wind
But I won't stop until my journey's end

Chasing shadows going nowhere
Different worlds that lead to one
I dunno what happened down there
But I was given love

Chasing shadows endless journey
Looking for the chance to shine
You showed me the right of passage
Comes from down inside
Deep inside

Chasing shadows going nowhere
Different worlds that lead to one
I dunno what happened down there
But I was given love

Chasing shadows endless journey
Looking for the chance to shine
You showed me the right of passage
Comes from down inside
Deep inside

Deep inside
