

Hella, Dull Fangs

Entertain these dull fangs
Rehearse the future to do the same
Maintain these dull fangs
So they will not be tamed

No one wants the pieces back together
Bad habits fall apart in the best of weather
Substitutes are formed from what remains

When the future gets right
It's gonna take its own life
And leave behind its twin to haunt us all again
The moment that you're in could be your enemy or your friend
Living in the year where it doesn't come back
Will free us from the thought of being caught in the act
You can build a mountain but you'll still eat dirt
When the truth causes death even the lies don't hurt

Entertain these dull fangs
That they will not be tamed
Please maintain these dull fangs
And rehearse the future to do the same

No one wants change unless you can change it in for trash
The ending of it all is the only thing that lasts
Living in the darkness that your ego casts
It kisses with the same trap that betrays behind all backs
When you're walking through this head
Is it dense or is it vast?
Understanding is a hidden path
Caskets only kennel our masks
Burn the popular sensations over-nighting the wrath

Entertain these dull fangs
That they will not be tamed
Please maintain these dull fangs
And rehearse the future to do the same
Entertain these dull fangs
That they will not be....

Eternally ignored
Fast forward

Futures all fall to the past
Dying is the way to gain fame
Present is the love that won't last
Entertain your dull fangs

Eternally ignored
Fast forward

Entertain these dull fangs
That they will not be tamed
Please maintain these dull fangs
That they will not be tamed
