

Hellicopters, Red Light

"We're gonna lay in this sincerity"
"Talking of Venus and Moleen, of night have end it made"
"Sew some pretty faces won't come by"
"The dirt will tell the truth ain't comming lie"

"And didn't had to tell you 'bout your health"
"and it makes you look releasing"
"Cheaply and dispair"
Saw you in a dream I had last night
You were throwing punches in a firefight

Would you excuse me,
You really do amuse me.
Funny little thing, you're out of sight.
You were linger, would you to turn your middle fingers
Picking up the pieces of your life

Red light,
Shines upon your greater light.
Walk around, your neck is getting tight
Yeah, red light
Try and try and try you might,
You're along, of course, and I'm alright.

Yeah, yeah! And I'm alright
