

Hellogoodbye, Lindsay Pia Aia Mode (Live Acoustic)

Sing songs for Lindsay Pai tell her how she caught my eye let her know how it's been so long the first impressions seemed so strong.
I dont know what to say or do every feeling feels so knew I have got a chance, to get this girl to come and dance.
She probally thinks that im obsessed, but I just think that shes the best.
She probally thinks that I'm just lonley, but I've got good friends and shes the only.. one that makes me feel this way when shes around I loose my brain the only thing that clouds the sun is that she's got someone.. what do I do now?
I have got to figure her out Because this means more than I ever ever thought it might I'm setting off to sea tonight
forever and ever seems so bright and im seeting off to sea tonight I'm writing lyrics in the park I go to her house after dark tap on the window hope and pray that she will like all the gifts that I made all we ever are is friends we both know that that ever ends she will go on with the guy shes got and I promise that I will stay in my spot Because this means more than I ever ever thought it might I'm setting off to sea tonight
forever and ever seems so bright and im seeting off to sea tonight I ever ever thought it might I'm setting off to sea tonight
forever and ever seems so bright and im seeting off to sea tonight
