

Hellogoodbye, Two Weeks In Hawaii

you've got your airplane and i've got the plain air of here you're gone i've gone insane oh when will you reappear i'm just some new kid who can't get his mind off of you and i know that it's stupid cause you've got Hawaii and i've gotten no letters from you i should stop whining cause its only been a day or two...

i don't know what you did but you got me to fall for you

your family's rad and i wish that they were here today but they're thousands and thousands of miles away i felt so bad when your mom caught us eating ice cream in your room at three in the morning and i'd hate for her to not want me around her daughter cause my heart stops every time you've got polaroid and you even know how to rhyme id be overjoyed if we could just hang out sometime

i don't know what you did

your drawing's rad and i put in on my wall and i made sure it wouldn't fall cause if it did my straw wrapper might tear and there would be no knot and i would feel like i'd been shot right through heart and id fall apart but id remember how my heart stops every time you are so special

i just hope that we can be friends i'll wait forever but i guess that it all depends on you and yours so come on and dance with me
you are so special

i hope this makes you smile and you might stay that way for a while cause you deserve every grin that you get and you'll get em a lot from me
