

Hellyeah, One Thing

Broken heart, broken dreams, broken promise
Broken wings, broken spirit, break everything.
It breaks a body down.

Broken back, broken seams, broken life
Broken me, broken hope, broken sleep
Broken bottle drinks me down.

Give me, one

Give me, one

Just give me one thing, just give me.

Just give me one thing, one hope, one tear.

Just give me one thing, one wish, one fear.

I've lost it all, lost everything, lost the wish.

Lost the key, lost the trust, lost the need.

Lost the war inside.

Lost the slate, wiped it clean, lost the will.

Lost the means, lost the gift, left the scene,

And burned the body down...

Give me, one.

Give me, one.

Just give me one thing, just give me.

Just give me one thing, one hope, one tear.

Just give me one thing, one wish, one fear.

Just give me one thing, one wish, to let me love again.

Just give me one thing, one hope, The crust of happiness.

Falling out again.

Chasing my life down.

Endless searching for the one thing,

That will turn it all around.

Just give me one thing, one hope, one tear.

Just give me one thing, one wish, one fear.

Just give me one thing, one hope, the crust or happiness.

One fucking thing
