

Henry Rollins, Right Here, Too Much

(first performed at woodstock 94&quot;)

Years of self denial make me put it inside

And when it comes time to get real all I can do is hide

Oh, I'd like to get out from underneath these walls

Sometimes I look back at my life and I wonder if I've gone too far

Because I wonder if I belong anywhere at all

And I wonder if I belong to you

Oh, I try to get out from underneath these walls

But so many times I've reached out and I ... somethin' at all

Because I wonder if I belong anywhere at all

And I wonder if I belong to you

Somethin' in your eyes sees right to me, right through me

Like you knew me, I hope you do

Don't wanna know about any of this horror

Don't wanna feel all the pain in the world

Don't wanna know about any of these nightmares

Don't wanna stand alone in my room

I think I'm ready to be pulled out

I been hangin' round this place for so long - please get me out

I'd like to have somethin' more to show than all this pain

The things that go on in my life I can't explainn
