

Her Space Holiday, You And Me

You and me
We like to talk about that summer night
You came over to my house and I
Sat there while you told me
Everything
All of your ups and downs and in between
And I just thought to myself
And I just thought to myself

How could so much good exist in such a tiny heart?
Despite of all the pain she's in she never falls apart
And if she does it lasts the length of seven songs
She dries her tears on her best friend's sleeves and dances right along

In a dream
You called me up and asked me quietly
If I would like to meet you for a drink
But when I got there you just looked at me
As you spoke to yourself
"If you take me home tonight I know that we will kiss
And one of us will fall in love and it will be a mess
But if you want to take that chance then please just let me know."
I slammed my glass down on the bar and said "grab your coat, let's go."

So here we are [x8]
We've come so far

And I just thought to myself, and I just thought
"How could so much good exist in such a tiny heart?
Despite of all the pain she's in she never falls apart
And if she does it lasts the length of seven songs
She dries her tears on her best friend's sleeves and dances right along
