

Her Words Kill, Join The Fight

Never did I imagine that you would
Crease like once romanced bedsheets
Don't let her words bring you down

Can we pick up the pace?
Are we moving too fast?
Looking for the answers lost within,
Looking for the answers to stop fighting
Don't let her words bring you down
Just to make love under clearer skies

I can feel you when you crawl,
I can feel you when you kill,
I can feel you when you leave

You will join the fight
Nowhere you can run, nowhere you hide,
Can you stop breathing out?
Waiting for you
