

Herman Brood, Eyes

She came along a feelin' hit me o so strong I knew something was wrong
in my head

We did our thing never suspected a thing wedding bells were about to ring
in my head

She gazed up at me & the answer was plain to see since I saw the light in y'r eyes

I tried to run
I knew it wouldn't help me none
I could never ever love someone Like you
