

High Hopes, Girl

Girl,
do ya still love me,
Do ya still love me low,
Please let me go,
Understand me..

Girl,
Do ya still love me,
Do ya still love me slow,
Please let me go,
Understand me..

Oh,
I gave it all,
I gave it all to you
Everything I could,
More than I should..

Oh,
want to tell you my friend,
want to tell the world again,
That's not too late now,
Can't you see why ?
And I want the clock's death now,
Oh I want to go down now
Yes I want the clock's death

I can tattoo your smell
I guess I'm overheated
You know what I want to tell you
I can't get no more ends nor breakin

I want to feel you closer take you deeper
Want we to spread it through the clouds now
Want we all to spread beyond the stars
To the lake,
To the lake

Girl,
do ya still love me,
Do ya still love me low,
Please let me go,
Understand me..

Oh,
want to tell you my friend,
want to tell the world again,
That's never too late, now,
Can't you see why ?
I want to go down now
God is no help now,
And I want the clock's death

I can tattoo your smell
I guess I'm overheated
You know what I want to tell you
I can't get no more ends nor breaking

I want to feel you closer take you deeper
Want we to spread it through the clouds now
Let me dive down to the lake
To the lake
To the lake, lake, lake, lake, lake
To the lake, lake, ahhh...
