HIM, The Face Of God

I'm drained but aching for more And the devil inside is reading The words of the saddest poem To be engraved on the stone on my grave

I'd kill to share your pain (and carry the shame) And sell my soul for you just to say:

"I dream what you're dreaming And feel what you're feeling Love's the shadow on our wall With the face of God"

Nothing will be enough For the ones who keep on stumbling In the garden of withering trust Without the courage to leave

I'd take my life for your kiss (grant me this) And lose it all to take you across the abyss

I dream what you're dreaming And feel what you're feeling Love's the shadow on our wall With the face of God

You dream what I'm dreaming And see what I'm seeing Love's our shadow on the wall With the face of God

Labyrinth in the shape of a heart Loves' secret architecture I find myself to be lost in the Arms of your fate

I'd kill to share your pain (please let me stay) And sell my soul for you just to say Loves name in vain Again and again...

I dream what you're dreaming And feel what you're feeling Love's our shadow on the wall With the face of God

You dream what I'm dreaming And see what I'm seeing Love's our shadow on the wall With the face of God
