

HIZAKI grace project, Ritual

Silence-I'm wandering in the darkness
Shuddering-In this room I'm alone
Escaping-I'm captured by the sorrow
Hurting-My heart's shut by the despair
So far from you I became aware that I can't live without you
Nothin-I cannot see in the sky
Waking with sweet memory Suffering from my broken heart remind the world of us
Even though I am crushed by the fate keep my honest love
The birds flapping away to the shining sky
Still I'm here, waiting for you
If hold you once again,
never part from you
I'll give you all my love...
