

Hoffsten Louise, Seasons Of Love

[L. Hoffsten / L. Hoffsten - L. Larson]

Many roads have eaten my shoes on my way looking for you I think my search has come to an end so why not check out my menu No more promises of the empty kind just some autumn leaves to colour my mind
ooo

Let me show you all the reasons for love
ooo

Let me take you through the seasons of love Spring won't always keep us warm the summer heat can be too much We will be tossed by many storms challenging our rage and guts Don't be afraid my little darling
I will catch you in the rain when it's falling
ooo

Let me show you all the reasons for love
ooo

Let me take you through the seasons of love
ooo

ooo

Let me take you through the seasons of love
We might as well enjoy the weather Let's melt the cold winter snow into a river of love that will always flow
