

Hog Heaven, Stoned Feelin'

Yeah, you know there ain't nothin',
Nothin' in this whole wide world
Like the sweet, intoxicatin' love of a good woman.

Opened my eyes and what do you know?
Here it is morning and she still didn't go.
And the look that she gives me, well, I've seen it before.
It eases my mind and makes me know that I need nothin' more.
Yeah, and I feel, yes, I feel like I'm stoned
When I find me a vision to lay down my head
And I feel, you know, I feel just like I'm stoned
'Cause a good love can give you that stoned feelin'.

With all of the troubles that I find day to day
And with all the bad things in the air
It's sure a good feelin' to know in your mind
That when you need somebody to love, yeah, she'll be there.
Yeah, and I feel, (oh, I feel) yes, I feel (yes, I feel) like I'm stoned
When I find me a vision to lay down my head
And I feel, well, you know, I feel, I feel just like I'm stoned (like I'm stoned, like I'm stoned)
'Cause a good love can give you that stoned feelin'.

I said a good love can give you that stoned feelin'....
