

Hold On Kid, Here Is Your Song

Goodbye, I can't stand you anymore
I won't say it to your face
You never said it to mine,
So here is your song
I hope one day you'll hear it
And feel the way that I felt
On the night I wrote this one for you
One day we're fine
The next you hate me
With nothing in between
What could I have done
That was so wrong
You won't even talk to me
I gave my everything
So you'll say goodbye again
To everything we had
To everything we had
So goodbye I can't stand you anymore
I won't say it to your face
You never said to mine
So here is your song
I hope one day you'll hear it
And feel the way that I felt
I wrote this one for you
Now I see that I'm not good enough for you
But what else do you want me to do
It seems that everything I do is wrong
And I can't keep you happy while someone else is
So you'll say goodbye again
To everything we had
To everything we had
So goodbye I can't stand you anymore
I won't say it to your face
You never said to mine
So here is your song
I hope one day you'll hear it
And feel the way that I felt
I wrote this one for you
This is the last time
I'm saying this to you
I cannot stand you
So take your memories
The friendship we once had
You'll remember me one day
When it all comes crashing down
But remember now I'm gone
And there's no second chances
Now you've got to make it on your own
Now you've got to make it on your own
Fuck you I'll do it on my own
