Holden Avenue, Doll

You said, it's too late, for me to change myself My customs, my habits are driving you insane You're wrong i think, i might still have a chance only for you i become good man i become good man Only for you i can change my whole life Only for you i can start acting right I will behave I will behave Only for you i'll become someone else So now you see that you can take my word New look, new me, not like the one before But think and tell me was it really worth? You've lost real me and got some fuckin doll got some fuckin doll Only for you i can change my whole life Only for you i can start acting right I will behave I will behave Only for you i'll become someone else So if you know who i am better don't change me accord to your plan I'll be myself I'll be myself and our life will be better by then
