

Holly McNarland, Voices

watching you sleep you can't scream i'm still here without speech i'm waiting, i'm waiting stealing all the voices watching you go down whispering her voices

whispering you down
whispering her voices

you're warmer than the ground i'm better not to come around are you still afraid of this?
but this is everything you'd miss i'm still waiting, yes i'm waiting do i blame you for this?

every single bit of it i'm still seething i'm barely breathing i thank you, thank you for this

stealing all the voices watching you come down
whispering her voices

she's whispering (x3)
